"THE SEA" IS THEME OF EXHIBIT
AT LAKEWOOD CIVIC ART GALLERY

Lakewood Civic art gallery, located in Lakewood High School, is currently exhibiting paintings, prints, ceramics, wood and glass articles and textiles, all dedicated to the theme "Of The Sea". The exhibition, which opened April 6, was organized and installed by the Extension Exhibitions department of The Cleveland Museum of Art and will continue through July 3.

Artistic styles represented in the show are many, ranging from Occidental to Oriental techniques. Artists included are Clevelanders Paul Travis, Viktor Schreckengost and Henry Keller (1864-1949) and Japanese printmakers Shiko Munakata and Hiroshige (1797-1858).

The public is cordially invited to view the exhibition Monday through Friday 11:00 a.m. to 1:20 p.m., 3:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. and at other times by appointments scheduled with the principal's office (LA 1-9920). After June 13 the exhibit may be seen, by appointment, Monday through Friday 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
